Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, The Marion High School Band has had a long history of excellence and is well known as one of the finest small town musical assemblies in South Dakota; and,

WHEREAS, In striving for quality musicianship through dedication and self-discipline, the Marion High School Marching Band has earned 21 first-place trophies in parade and field competition; and,

WHEREAS, In 1981, the school's concert band was awarded the National High School Band Achievement Award-First Chair of America; and,

WHEREAS, The Marion High School Band has also received the honor of performing at halftime of South Dakota's First Annual Football Playoffs in the DakotaDome as well as earning a Superior rating as a participant in the Tri-State USD Invitation Only Concert Band Festival in 1980; and,

WHEREAS, To demonstrate their national appeal, the Marion High School Band has accepted an invitation to march in the Philadelphia Independence Day Parade on July 3; and,

WHEREAS, As an even greater honor, this outstanding marching unit has been asked to be the first band ever to represent South Dakota in the nationally televised Fourth of July Independence Day Parade on Constitution Avenue; and,

WHEREAS, The Marion High School Band was selected for this high honor because of their quality musicianship, their excellent reputation, and because of the great devotion and support the people of Marion have given to the band throughout the years:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim July 3 and 4, 1983, as in South Dakota, in appreciation of this fine group and for the pride they have brought to their state.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Tenth Day of February, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Three
